For Immediate Release

Bill Kills

Bill's Poker Blog takes the number one slot on Dozenpoker.com in the September 2009 Absolute Ranking System (ARS).

Big bad Bill Rini steals the show this month by becoming Top of the Blogs on Dozenpoker.com – the most revolutionary poker review portal on the web.

Bill's Poker Blog rose by six full points on the Dozenpoker.com ARS, far ahead of his rivals Hard-Boiled Poker and Pokerati. On almost every score, Bill comes up top trumps. The September figures show that Bill is regularly posting at the rate of 8 posts every 10 days, putting him a cut above the competition. Under the parameters of 'description', 'updates' and 'social options' Bill's Poker Blog gets the maximum 10 out of 10. He also soars high with excellent grades in 'content', 'size' and 'popularity'.

Straight-talking Bill pulls no punches when talking about poker and subjects include 'Is Online Poker Rigged?', 'The Ultimate Secret of Winning Poker' and personal anecdotes from his poker travels around the world.

Bill has been an avid poker player since the tender age of 10. His technical background, industry connections and his passion for sharing his observations (along with his brutal honesty) have made his blog a favorite with the online poker community and now he has reached the coveted number one spot on Dozenpoker.com.

Other news from September's Dozenpoker.com ARS shows that Full Tilt Poker has pushed up five points ahead of its rivals 888.com and Poker Stars in the Poker Network category. Full Tilt is also winning in the battle for best performing Poker Room, leading Bodog.com and Pokerstars.com by just one point. Yet, in the Bonus category, Ultimate Bet has overtaken Full Tilt by offering the best Sign Up Bonus at a whopping $1,100 and winning extra points for its Added Friend and Reload Bonuses.

According to the September figures, Pokerlistings.com is still the Top Poker Portal to be found online, although it is followed closely by runner-up Poker.com. The World Series of Poker site (WSOP) takes the crown in the Events category, largely thanks to its unparalleled coverage and detailed player stats that pushed it up the rankings by three points.
